Reference in support of Bevan James Eyles

Bevan is a confident, engaging and articulate keynote speaker who shares insights from his personal experiences, learnings and teaching which educate, enthrall and entertain his audience.

He is skilled, funny and a warm human being who shares a great motivation message of change, growth and developing success combined with proven and smart techniques to ensure an audience has a take home group of ideas and actions to improve their life and lifestyle.

Bevan spoke to a group of 200 plus Inspire Foundation Corporate, Family members and Sponsors for us and we received rave reviews.

We'd recommend Bevan as a keynote speaker for events and conferences of any delegate number.

Yours faithfully,

Paul Wright
