To whom it may concern,

My name is Dr Richard Clinghan and I am the creative director of PEG Talks - a General Practitioner version of TED talks that aims to inspire and motivate primary care providers.

To put it bluntly, anyone that is capable of inspiring my wife to run a half marathon is worth listening too!

When I first meet Bevan, I could see, and almost feel why he is so successful at inspiring people to put on their running shoes. Bevan has a certain aura and magnetism that surrounds him which his clients find infectious and electrifying. His mana also flows from a stage to an audience.

When we saw Bevan's audition video, the PEG Talks committee instantly knew Bevan would be our headline act. Bevan was professional and accommodating throughout the process of preparing his talk. He obligingly listened to our constructive feedback and we developed a cohesive working relationship. Bevan's presentation stole the show as he eloquently used stories and shared lessons to engage his audience.

I would thoroughly recommend Bevan as an inspirational speaker who I am confident could grab the attention of any audience.

Sincerely yours,

Dr Richard Clinghan
